

National Entrepreneurship Week

Entrepreneurship Empowers Everyone

Georgia State Leadership Team

Linda Smith - Georgia Department of Education
lsmith@doe.k12.ga.us

Paul DeLargy – Georgia REAL Enterprises
paul@gareal.org

WEBLINKS:

- For events around the state go to www.gareal.org
- Georgia REAL Special Edition Newsletter:
http://nationaleweek.org/eweek_files/SpecialEdition2010GREALnewsletter.pdf

FEATURED EVENTS

2nd Annual International Leadership Summit for future Entrepreneurs from Riverwood High School

From Riverwood: Aaron Bhole, Yousef Ali, Emil D'Mello, Patricia Cook, Jenine McKoy, Micah Brochin and Amira Perryman
Read more...

From Norway: Eivind Holmboe, Maria Moen, Ida Froyen, Maria Haugland
Read more...

From Denmark: Tobias Johnson, Marie Andersen, Nina Drasbeck, Debbie Frimann, Simone Haning
Read more...

YEAR ROUND CALENDAR

Date	Location	Event Description	Audience	Contact Info
------	----------	-------------------	----------	--------------

March2-3, 2010	Milledgeville, GA	Georgia Entrepreneur Summit "The Journey Continues..Survive and Thrive"	General	For Details http://www.gamarketfi ng.org/2010Entrepren eurSummitWebsite/su mmary.html
		The 2nd Annual Innovative Business Plan Competition is underway. This year's finalists in alphabetical order are as follows: EthosU is a high school student-athlete recruitment portal where athletes can store their statistics and sports information for colleges and coaches to review for recruitment purposes. Morehouse College Fight for Light is a non-profit organization, working to promote and deploy LED lighting as a solution to the ecological downsides of incandescent and compact fluorescent lighting. Morehouse College Housing Innovations is a start-up real estate investment firm developed to meet the growing need for affordable housing in the New Orleans area in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. Southern University at New Orleans Instar Medical Technology is a medical technology firm with an emphasis on Electronic Medical Records (EMR) and Practice Management software (PM). Clark Atlanta University Living in Fashioned Energy (L.I.F.E.) is a consulting firm that focuses on improving the overall efficiency of a business by identifying sustainable solutions through the use of environmentally friendly business strategies. University of Virginia The Bison Surplus specializes in grocery delivery by providing a convenient affordable delivery service to residents in "housing centers" such as condominiums, apartment complexes, and college dormitories. Howard University		Guy L. Madison gmadison@mcecenter.com 404-551-4697 www.mcecenter.com